

THE FAIRY VIOLIN

Once upon a time there was a small wooden violin, locked in an attic because no one played it anymore.

One day a little girl named Anna went to play in the attic and saw the violin, all dusty, in a corner.

She took it carefully and tried to play it.

Although the little girl did not know music, from the violin came out, as if by magic, a sweet melody that spread throughout the world.

That violin was enchanted: every time someone played it with love, it gave happiness and peace to those who listened to it.

From that day on, Anna never stopped playing it, giving notes of serenity to the whole world.

